TRINIDAD, April 23.-One thousand strikers, who swept over the southern coal fields from Delagua to Rouse today, leaving behind them the smoking ruins of eight great coal properties and adding possibly an additional score to the present death list of twenty-six, ere preparing for a battle with the 350 militiamen being hurried into the strike sone from Denver.

at 11 o'clock to-night, Western time. One thousand strikers from Aguilar der orders from their leaders to meet Ludiow the militiamen at Lynn. The troops are reported to be approaching. A battle which promises to be the bloodiest of the strike now appears inevitable.

Carried away by a feeling of power and a desire for revenge, the strikers have planted themselves along the lines of the Colorado and Southern and the Denver and Rio Grande railroads and are awaiting the troops' approach. A battle began in the streets of Walcenburg to-night. The streets of Walsenburg, it was said, were filled with people and every one who could procure a gun was arming himself.

One man was reported killed early in the evening. After the receipt of a brief message here it was impossible to get into Walsenburg either by telephone or telegraph. All wires are reported down.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., sent word yesterday from the offices of the Rockefeller. Foundation, 26 Broadway, that he "had absolutely nothing to say" in regard to the strike of the Southwestern Fuel Company in Trinidad, Col.

The charge of Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford that Mr. Rockefeller's statements on unionism before Congress had brought on the trouble received no answer from Mr. Rockefeller.

Campfires gleam along the ridges, and at Aguilar, the scene of the burning of the Empire Mine property yesterday, 500 men are gathered for what is supposed will be the first concerted attack. As a result of the fighting to-day the strikers hold possession of all the country between Ludlow, where 100 men and two machine guns under

The three men killed yesterday at the fight about the Empire property were J. P. Gomes, Ben Vigil and Nick Schumich. The fighting this morning commenced shortly after 5 o'clock, when from the Empire property and the town of Aguilar, the strikers' forces surged northward, carying everything before them. Their numerical strength at various places was estimated at between 700 and 1,200 men.

The Primrose property, from which the women and children had been removed to Rouse during the night, was the first to be burned. Before volleys from the hills its defenders fell back from building to building, until finally they were forced to fee to the hills. A moment later the mine tipple and other wooden structures were ablaze, and at 9 o'clock reports of dynamite heard Fighting in Streets, and 200 at Rouse gave evidence that the slope and probably the air shaft had been de-

The moment he began the cross-examination Stephen Baldwin, afterney for Mr. Connolly, asked Filan attorney for Mr. Connolly, asked Filan to write several sentences with pen and ink. The witness did so.

Baldwin then produced a letter alleged to be in Filan's handwriting and ad-dressed to Gertrude Hatcle referred to in the case as "Phyro," and a corespondent in Mrs. Halleran's suit for divorce. This letter contained many expressions of re-gard. It also asked Miss Hatch to send her letters in care of William A. Filan, 326 Locust street, Flushing, adding, "Send your reply to a particular friend of mine and he will promptly hand me your letter. I do this, Gertrude, for fear that letters might involve me in serious trouble. With heaps of love."

Filan admitted that the girl addressed was Miss Hatch. The questioning that followed indicated that Baldwin wished to show Filan wrote the letter at the dicta-tion of Halleran and that the initial "A."

stood for Aloysius Halleran.
